From the Editor

On Sunday May 19th we held the Bar "A" show. This was the first show we held in four years due to covid restrictions and not being able to get the facility under contract. We would like to thank everyone who came out to this great and fun event. I would especially like to thank Joe F, and Skip A for doing all the legwork and organization of the event. Thanks to all of our members who came early and did parking assistance and gate control and collected and manned the ticket table. A big thanks to Ron E for lending his voice and personality to calling out the giveaways.

I would also like to express my special thanks to Lisa F for putting together the newsletter for all these years. At the last meeting, Lisa announced that she will continue to create the work of art that we know as Corvette Expressions, even though she is moving away. From the bottom of my heart, thank you! We all wish you best of luck in your new home!

Howard

Greetings, and welcome to the June, 2024 issue of Corvette Expressions.

May 19 was a very special day for our club, for it marked the long anticipated return of the Corvette Express Bar A event! Attendees enjoyed a delicious BBQ, cool drinks and great cars!

Looking for another fun, Corvette day? Be sure to check out the All American Corvette Club annual car show on June 9. (See the flyer on page 5, and additional information on page 7 of this newsletter.)

On a personal note, this summer marks ten years that Larry and I have been members of the Corvette Express Club. Through-out that time, we have had the privilege of meeting a plethora of very special people, many of whom I am honored to call our friends. In April of 2022, we decided to build a new home in the town of Hernando, Florida (about an hour north of Tampa.) Our original plan was to be "snow birds," living in both Florida and New Jersey. Unfortunately, the new home ended up to be enormously over budget which resulted in the difficult decision to live full time in Florida.

Larry and I will miss you all very much. We will continue to attend the meetings via ZOOM, and as Howard mentioned in his President's letter, I will continue to put the newsletter together from Florida, but if anyone is interested in taking over as the newsletter editor, please let me know.

Lisa Force
